Dear Mr Wedge,

Your letter of September 7th 2017

14 OCT 2017

Further to your letter of September 7th addressed inappropriately to the Company Chairman and contrary to the company's notice to you in its letter of April 12th 2017, I am instructed by the Board of Uppingham First to further advise you of the following:-

- 1) In accordance with company policy and as previously notified to you, all written communication with the company should be addressed to the Company Secretary c/o 7 Hawthorn Drive, Uppingham, Rutland LE15 9TA. The company is happy to receive correspondence via e-mail at secretary@uppinghamfirst.co.uk
- 2) The company is pleased to advise that a feasibility study government grant has been secured by the Uppingham First Partnership for the E J Toon Housing Project which will cover all preliminary costs, including legal advice from an experienced and impartial designated member of the law society appointed at national level. The feasibility study will be led by an appointed Task Group which includes a number of community representatives who are also town councillors. It is hoped to have the study completed by March 2018.

Regards,

Ron Simpson
