

Are you warm and toasty this winter? Could you spare a few items for people who might not be and who may be living on the streets?

Do you have any of these items you could donate? There will be a collection of such things coming up soon in Uppingham.

Please email the address below to show your interest and to keep up to date with the donation date and venue.

Please email to show your interest:

rucksackclaire@outlook.com

to find out more information:

www.therucksackproject.org

*Come along to Market Place, Uppingham between 9am and 1pm
on Saturday 27th February 2016.*

We will be there to take your kind donations – look forward to seeing you!